

Consultant

David Bancroft-Turner, BA (Hons), MIPD, Dip TM

David is a senior consultant & a Partner with TTM associates and is highly specialised in Leadership and management development .

David's background is in International Banking. He worked for National Westminster Bank for 14 years including four years in the Middle East. He was central to the setting up of a range of overseas acquisitions as well as making a number of strategic disposals.

He was Head of Management Development for a number of large multi national companies and has been an Executive Coach, Trainer and Speaker for the last 17 years. He has proven Leadership, Team and Communication skills and experience of managing small and very large teams on a local, regional, matrix and virtual basis.

David specialises in Leadership Development and is best know for his pioneering work in the area of organisational politics having developed and trademarked the unique 'political intelligence' process. He works in many different cultures ensuring that organisational politics is used as a positive force.

As an Executive Coach he is supportive, challenging and hugely pragmatic. He is passionate about coaching as an activity to improve the performance of individuals and organisations alike.

Total Talent Management